

Yonkers Tennis Center Season Court Rules 2010/2011

- Any group wishing to reserve their existing seasonal time has a priority right to that time up until March 14, 2010. Those groups whose court times will not be offered seasonally for 2010-11 will be notified in writing. A non refundable deposit of $500.00 per court hour or the full 5% Pay-in Full discounted rate is required.
- Courts not taking advantage of the 5% Pay-in-Full discount must leave a deposit of $500 per court hour and participate in the Auto-Pay program or Pay-in Full with no discount the first week of play. All financial information must be submitted by March 14, 2010. Failure to do so could result in the non-renewal of your seasonal court. There will be a $5 per month administration fee per player if you choose to participate in Auto Pay. The $5 fee will be waived if you choose to let us debit your checking account (ACH).
- Consumer's right to cancellation: You may cancel this contract without any penalty or further obligation within three (3) days from the date of registration. Court deposits are non-refundable.
- Yonkers Tennis will accept payments from individual group members only if a fully completed "Player Roster" is submitted by the Captain, stating the individual player's names, address, phone numbers, e-mails and amount each owes.
- The club does not rent a "specific" court or pro. The club rents only the day and time on any available court. Courts may be reassigned at any time at the discretion of the management.
- Season courts may only use the facilities teaching staff. No outside teaching professionals are allowed to teach or use the facilities teaching equipment.
- The group will be responsible for any applicable federal, state, local taxes that might be levied against these fees during the course of the season. This responsibility will not be waived even if the taxes are levied retroactively. Fees currently collected do not include any such taxes.
- No rebate, credit or makeup time shall be due for loss of group's reserved court time due to circumstances beyond the control for Yonkers Tennis Center, such as acts of God, strikes, etc. Seasonal court time unused by the playing groups because of personal reasons or holidays cannot be made up.
- Management reserves the right to provide instruction on adjacent courts.
- Management reserves the right to change all or part of this offering without prior notice.
- The use of the center is strictly at the player's risk. The center is not responsible for injuries, accidents or damage to any person or to personal property arising from normal athletic activities in the premises. All groups and their guests hereby waive any claims for damages arising from their use of center facilities.
- In the event you are unable to use your seasonal court time and wish to resell it, you must notify the club in writing. If it or a portion is resold you will receive a makeup. A maximum of three dates are allowed per season and all makeup's must be taken before May 8, 2011. This rule applies to SeaPro courts as well.
